Music Safari Camp

Tuition: $185 per session

Director: Marsha Kincade

5 days: M-F, 9:00am-12:30pm

Session 1: Age 6 to 10, June 11 - June 15

Session 2: Age 4 to 6, July 23 - July 27

Session 3: Age 6 to 10, Aug. 6 - Aug. 10

Music Safari Camp is an ideal setting for children to be introduced to music and the arts. During this week of musical exploration, campers will enjoy hands-on experience with several families of instruments, such as strings, winds, brass, percussion, and keyboard. This camp is a great opportunity to find out what instrument your child connects with before they begin private lessons. Prior musical experience is not necessary.

Nature Explorers Camp

Tuition: $185 per session

Faculty: TMS Early Childhood teachers

9:00am-12:30pm // Age 3 (by 1/1/18) to 6

Session 1: Mon., June 11 - Fri., June 15

Session 2: Mon., June 18 - Fri., June 22

Each Nature Explorers STEAM camp encourages preschool children to discover and engage in a rich arts & sciences environment through games, outdoor activities, and arts and crafts. Campers must bring a nut-free lunch & water bottle from home daily. Toilet mastery is required.

If your child was in Kindergarten this year, Camp Create (see back page) is a better fit. If your child is in TMS Day School, this summer camp runs concurrently.

2018 Summer Camps for Musicians

Piano Camp

NEW! Cello Boot Camp

2 days: Th-F, July 5 - July 6, 10am-4pm

Director: Ida Mercer // Tuition: $150 // Age: 13 and up (adult musicians welcome!)

Intermediate level (see website for details)

There's nothing like an intensive 2-day boot camp to advance your cello playing quickly! Sessions will rotate through technical drills of all sorts: scales, arpeggios, 3rds, 6ths, and bowing exercises, interspersed with audio and videos to increase our understanding of the cello's glorious, vast sound world. Both days conclude with cello choir reading sessions. Cello Boot Camp is a terrific opportunity to bond with fellow cello players in a friendly and supportive environment, while challenging yourself to improve your skills and musicianship.

American Popular Music Week

All three camps will perform an exciting concert together on Sat., July 14th

J@MS Jazz Camp

6 days: M-Sa, July 9 - July 14, 9am-5pm

Director: Ken LeeGrand

Tuition: $425 // Age: 11 to 18

Polish your musical skills and discover the rich and vital tradition of jazz music in this summer offering of our popular school year program, Jazz @ The Music Settlement (J@MS). Campers will gain knowledge and develop their musical skills, perform in ensembles, and take classes in the history of African American music and improvisation. For more information, email Ken LeeGrand, J@MS Department Head: kleegrand@themusicsettlement.org.

Rock & Popular Music Camp

6 days: M-Sa, July 9 - July 14, 9am-5pm

Director: Alfredo Guerrieri

Tuition: $425 // Age: 10 to 18

This camp is a modern music experience that encompasses a variety of styles, including Classic Rock, Pop, Funk, Reggae, Grunge, Folk, and Blues. Campers will play in a creative rock ensemble to help them apply what they have learned. Camp includes band rehearsal, music theory & ear training, group lessons, music history and appreciation, performance preparation, and songwriting. For more information, email Alfredo Guerrieri, Rock & Blues Department Head: aguerrieri@themusicsettlement.org.

Broadway Basics Voice Camp

6 days: M-Sa, July 9 - July 14, 9am-5pm

Director: Kim Lauritsen

Tuition: $425 // Age: 9 to 18

Beginner - intermediate levels

Campers who want to be better singers, dancers, and actors will hone their skills in small vocal groups and musical theater workshops. Broadway Basics campers will explore vocal harmonies in tight-knit singing groups, plus background vocals, blending techniques, harmonizing, and more. They will also work on solo pieces in a master class and create an ensemble piece for the final concert. Auditions are required for campers under age 11. For more information, contact Kim Lauritsen, Vocal Department Head: klauritsen@themusicsettlement.org.
